Under the direction of Drillmaster T. R. Roemer all probationary patrolmen during their 30 days at the School of Instruction, were drilled in army tactics and given thorough revolver marksmanship practice, after which they were assigned to the Department Drill Corps, composed of companies A. B. C. D. E. F. G. H. I. Zouaves and Machine Gun and Traffic Squads.

Co. "I" being composed of ex-service men and especially drilled in the use of the riot gun.

The annual marksmanship practice was engaged in by 1410 officers, each one firing 30 shots rapid fire at a moving target that simulated actual emergency shooting.

About 55,000 cartridges were used in revolver practice and the shells have been reloaded for future use.

The general efficiency of the force in drill and marksmanship being fully attested by the showing in the annual parade, review and inspection and the target scores.
